

August 20, 2008 06:00 AM Eastern Daylight Time

SGP Offers Expertise in Personal Injury Law and Auto Accident Claims

PHOENIX--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Skousen, Gulbrandsen & Patience, PLC, one of Arizona's leading law firms in the field of auto accident and personal injury claims, is serving a reminder that as it relates to automotive or motorcycle accidents it is possible to obtain justice in even the most difficult personal injury claims. Not, however, if you go it alone. In short, it's imperative to have a qualified accident attorney on your side that your best interests in order to receive the full compensation you're entitled to.

With over 40 years experience in the industry, Skousen, Gulbrandsen & Patience has established itself as an industry leader and advocate in the handling of auto accident and other personal injury claims in the state of Arizona. SGP Law's expertise in handling personal injury cases across the board and its ability to consistently obtain fair and equitable compensation for its clients is a reflection not only of the experience and expertise of its staff, but also of the importance of qualified legal representation.

"While a qualified Personal Injury Attorney can't guarantee the outcome of your case, they can guarantee that no stone is left unturned in working to provide you with the compensation you deserve," says Richard Gulbrandsen of SGP Law. "Just as importantly, legal representation can help to bring a sense of order to what can be a chaotic time in a person's life. With so much at stake, it's so important to have an experienced attorney representing your interests."

The attorneys of Skousen, Gulbrandsen & Patience are experienced in all types of personal injury law, and have settled countless cases related to auto accidents, motorcycle accidents, wrongful death, serious injuries, dangerous products, dog bites, criminal DUI and more. The inner workings of personal injury law make expert representation an absolute must. By carefully assessing the unique aspects of your situation, our attorneys can set the wheels of justice in motion and work towards obtaining the full compensation you're entitled to under the law.

If you find yourself involved in a personal injury case and believe you have a claim, don't hesitate to seek out the experts at Skousen, Gulbrandsen & Patience. For more information visit www.sgplaw.com, call (800) 501-2782, or email us at attorney@sgplaw.com.